Evaluate only the TA (s) with whom you attended discussion section and/or office hours.

Covered the material at a slower pace.

he knows what he talks about

Matthew Curtis made himself available to students both during discussion section and office hours by answering any concerns that we, as students, had with the material presented in the course. He also spent extra time going over concepts students found difficult and provided concrete comprehend-able examples.

Please provide additional information and/or elaborate on any aspect of your evaluation. These comments are often the most valuable part of your evaluation. Every comment will be read!
